

BE A BEACH NATURALIST

Puget Sound beaches belong to all of us

Register soon! Training begins March 7, 2023.

As a beach naturalist, you'll learn more about Puget Sound beaches and their inhabitants—and the things we can all do to help protect them.

- Receive training from March through May, then spend three or more days educating beach visitors on low-tide days from June to August.
- Volunteer at Richmond Beach, Carkeek Park, Golden Gardens, Olympic Sculpture Park Beach, Charles Richey Viewpoint, Lincoln Park, Seahurst Park, Des Moines Beach Park, Saltwater State Park, Redondo Beach or Dash Point State Park.
- Join the Seattle Aquarium in Inspiring Conservation of Our Marine Environment!

Apply here!

For more information, visit our webpage, email beachnaturalist@seattleaquarium.org or call (206) 693-6214.

SeattleAquarium.org/beach-naturalist

The Beach Naturalist program is sponsored by the following partners:

Seattle Parks and Recreation • The City of Burien • The City of Des Moines •
The City of Shoreline • Washington State Parks

This project is funded in part by a King County Flood Control District Cooperative Watershed Management grant.