

Undergraduate Research Opportunity

Volunteers Needed

Help us save endangered species

The Center for Environmental Forensic Science at University of Washington is looking for student lab assistants to:

- Participate in research focused on the conservation of elephants, pangolins, and timber.
- Preliminary tasks include organization and logistical support.
- Training will be available as tasks advance and could include DNA extraction, PCR, DNA sequencing, and mass spectrometry.

Email your resume to finchkn@uw.edu

Taking applications until 9/1/2023

