

PUBPOL @ EVANS

Public Policy Minor Roadmap

Drive social change with a Public Policy Minor!

What is a minor?

- A minor is an area of specialization that appears on your UW transcript and can signal to future employers an area of expertise.
- Minors are a great way to explore a discipline or interdisciplinary theme but require less time compared to a major.

A quick look at the minor in the Evans School:

- 25 total credits
 - PUBPOL 201 (5 cr)
 - 20 credits from 300- or 400-level PUBPOL courses (or policy-focused courses with approval)
- Minimum 2.00 cum GPA for all courses applied to the minor
- Minimum 15 credits taken in residence at UW Seattle

Current Course Offerings

AUT 2023

WIN 2024

SPR 2024

- PUBPOL 201 Intro to Public Policy & Governance
- PUBPOL 403 Leadership in Action
- PUBPOL 499 Data Science, the Economy, and Public Policy

- PUBPOL 201 Intro to Public Policy & Governance
- PUBPOL 311 Ethics, Power and Leadership
- PUBPOL 355 Nonprofits, Philanthropy & Social Innovation
- PUBPOL 499 Health Equity & Policy

- PUBPOL 302 Public Service Leadership
- PUBPOL 321 Decision-Making, Behavior, and Policy Design
- PUBPOL 403 Leadership in Action
- PUBPOL 499 GIS & Public Policy

Learn More, including course info!

