

ESRM 489: Costa Rica/Olympic Peninsula: The Rainforest Microbiome

5 CREDIT EARLY FALL STUDY ABROAD COURSE

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Beginning at the La Selva Biological Station in Costa Rica and finishing at the Olympic Natural Resource Center on the Olympic Peninsula, this 3 week research-based program will investigate the roles of plant-microbe interactions in tropical and temperate rainforests while providing hands-on, novel research in both laboratory and field settings.

INFORMATION SESSIONS

Tuesday, Feb 6, 11:00-Noon
(Zoom)

Friday, Feb 9, 2:00-3:00pm
(Zoom)

Monday, Feb 12, 1:30-3:30pm
(In-person, Anderson 022)

For more information or questions, contact:

Robert Tournay (Instructor): tournay@uw.edu
Sharon Doty (Instructor): sldoty@uw.edu
Morgan Raimondo (Teaching Assistant): mraimond@uw.edu
Kevin Shaffman (Teaching Assistant): shaffman@uw.edu

Scan the QR Code for the digital brochure,
Zoom links, and application information

